

Kim Boettcher

Member, Legal Services Council

(14 October 2014 – 13 October 2020)

Ms Boettcher is a Barrister at Chalfont Chambers in Sydney. She was previously a Solicitor practicing in commercial and civil litigation law in England and Wales, New South Wales and Queensland. From 2010-2017, Kim was a Solicitor at the Seniors Rights Service, an independent legal centre in Sydney, which forms part of an Australian network of community legal centres.

She has attended the United Nations in New York as a civil society delegate and has presented papers at international conferences on compliance with elder rights regulation and its relationship with consumer law and human rights.

Ms Boettcher was appointed to the NSW Minister for Fair Trading's Retirement Villages Advisory Council in 2013 and also to the Minister's Expert Committee on Retirement Villages Standard Contract Terms and Disclosure Documents in 2011. She is also Treasurer of the International Commission of Jurists Australia and a member of the NSW Bar Association.

Ms. Boettcher has been a member of GAROP Australia, and very active in promoting a new Convention on the Human Rights of Older Persons at the UN Open Ended Working Group and elsewhere. Since she joined INPEA she has worked to promote justice for older persons everywhere.