2. The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are as follows:

A. To organize as a non-profit corporation under Chapter 180 of the Massachusetts General Laws. The purpose for which the Corporation is to be formed is to establish an organization to increase public awareness of elder abuse and neglect; to promote education and training of professionals and paraprofessionals in identification, treatment and prevention; to further advocacy on behalf of abused and neglected elders; and to stimulate research into the causes, consequences, prevalence, treatment, and prevention of elder abuse and neglect.

B. To manage gifts, bequests, devise and solicit funds and properties, endowment funds, grants, trust funds, and other foundations.

C. To carry on any activity, and to deal with and expand property and income for any of the foregoing purposes, provided always, however, that no such activity shall be such as is prohibited to a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code and provided that the corporation shall not attempt to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, nor shall it intervene or participate in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, and provided further that no part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member or private individual, and no member, director or officer of the corporation shall receive any pecuniary benefit from the corporation, except such reasonable compensation as may be allowed for services actually rendered to the corporation.

4. Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or its directors or members, or of any class of members are as follows:

A. The corporation may seek and apply for grants, fundings, and such other available source of funds as may be necessary to carry out its program, and may purchase, receive, take by grant, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold improve, employ, use and otherwise deal in and with real and personal property, or any interest therein, where ever situated.

B. The corporation may sell, convey, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of, mortgage, pledge, encumber, or create a security interest in, all or any of its property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.

C. The corporation may purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, employ, sell, lend, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, mortgage, pledge, use and otherwise deal in and with, bonds and other obligations, shares or other securities or interests issued by others, whether engaged in similar or different business, governmental, or other activities.

D. The corporation may make contracts, give guarantees and incur liability, borrow money at such rate of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage, pledge or encumbrance of, or security interest in, all or any of its property or any interest therein, wherever situated.

E. The corporation may lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

F. The corporation may do business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 180, as now in force or as hereinafter amended, in any jurisdiction within or without the United States, although the corporation shall not be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on for profit a trade or business unrelated to its tax exempt purposes.

G. The corporation may be an incorporator of other corporations of any type or kind.

H. The corporation may be a partner in any business enterprise which it would have power to conduct by itself.

I. The corporation shall make no contribution for other than religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes.

J. The trustees may make, amend, or repeal the by-laws in whole or in part, except with respect to any provisions thereof which by law or the by-laws require action by the members.

K. Meetings of the members may be held anywhere.

L. The corporation may, to the extent legally permissible and only to the extent that the status of the corporation as a corporation exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is not affected thereby, indemnify each of its trustees, officers, employees or other agents within the limits of the law as the by-laws may from time to time provide.

M. No part of the assets of the corporation and no part of any net earnings of the corporation shall be divided among or inure to the benefit of any officer or director of the corporation or any private individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes as herein set forth; and no substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be or include the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation or participating in or intervening in (including the publish or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

N. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles of Organization or the By-Laws of the corporation, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

(2) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

(3) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

(4) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

O. Upon the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation, after payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation or due provision therefor, all of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed in such amounts and proportions as the Board of Trustees shall determine to and among such organization as are qualified under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as organizations to which contributions are deductible for federal income, estate and gift tax purposes pursuant to the provisions of Sections 170(b)(1)(A), 23055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(E) of said Code.

P. The corporation may have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is formed; provided that no such power shall be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the Massachusetts General Laws, chapter 180, or any chapter of the General Laws of the Commonwealth or Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Q. All reference herein to the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or hereafter amended.
