

To whom it may concern,

Ms. Mira Cokic, with her voluntary work is very active in the field of protecting the human rights of older people.

Her activities include the organization of the Round Table, the Tribune, media and press interview, and lectures on the protection of older people's rights
<http://www.pravaustarosti.com/english>

Mira is active member of National Pensioners convention of Croatia, the largest pensioner organizations in the Republic of Croatia, which included 270 000 members. It operates 330 organizations and over 800 branches and clubs of pensioners in all municipalities, cities and counties. National Pensioners convention of Croatia is member of AGE and Mira is their representative at this organization.

Mira is the author of many articles on the rights of the elderly, as well as the identification and prevention of violence against the elderly.

Ms Mira Cokic is the founder of the first national portal for the third age in the republic of Croatia, since 2009 year. <http://www.dugzivot.com/english>

We would highly recommend considering her for the INPEA representative in Republic of Croatia.

Sincerely,

Dr Nada Benc Kos, MPH
Team leader

Association for the Rights of Elderly People