HIGHLIGHTS OF RESUME:

I am born in 1957 and hold a position as associate professor at Norwegian University of Technology and Science, Trondheim, Norway, at the Department of Public Health and Nursing. I have since the early nineties been concerned about elder abuse and published several articles and book chapters on the topic. The title of my doctoral theses (2013) is "Inadequate Care, Abuse and Neglect in Norwegian Nursing Homes". I have recently lead a research project on sexual abuse of nursing home residents. I have been member of several national advisory boards, as well as a frequent invited speaker nationally and internationally, about the elder abuse topic.

WHY DO YOU WISH (yourself/nominee) TO BE CONSIDERED FOR THE POST:

I have a genuine interest in the topic and would like to work for INPEA to raise awareness and knowledge on elder abuse world wide. I have a huge network, nationally and internationally that will benefit the course. I have been involved in several European project in the health care field.
