Summary of previous meetings

Singapore, 8th - 11th September 1998:

1st world conference on Family Violence. The conference proceedings included a half-day round table and plenary session on Elder Abuse. INPEA was represented throughout and the end of the conference Declaration included specific reference to older people.

San Antonio, 22nd - 24th February 1999:

IAG, Pan American Conference. The conference included a symposium on Elder Abuse co-chaired by Lia Daichman and Elizabeth Podnieks. In addition free papers on elder abuse were given. Contact was made with Dr Gloria Gutman, President-Elect IAG who wanted to work with INPEA to raise the profile of the issue at the World Congress of Gerontology in Vancouver 2001.

New Developments

INPEA Website: www.inpeabuse.org

INPEA's Website has been developed and established by Dr Paul Kingston (UK) funded for two years by the St Bartholomew's and Royal London, School of Medicine (UK) Elder Abuse Education and Research Unit. It will contain the newsletter, membership criteria and many other features and will be updated at least quarterly. If you would like items considered for inclusion on the Webpages, please contact Paul Kingston (contact details below). This will be up and running for use by mid May.

Logo

This will be available for the next newsletter. It will be a simple, easily recognisable symbol to be used on INPEA stationary, posters, newsletter, etc.
